JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has diversity jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because all of the parties reside in jurisdictions diverse to one another, and because one of the parties is a citizen of a foreign state.
2. Plaintiff, Exportaciones del Futuro S.A. de C.V. ("EF" or "Plaintiff"), is a corporation under the laws of Mexico, having its principal place of business in Mexico.

5. The amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs.

6. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because defendant Iconix has its principal place of business in the State of New York, and because the events and omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claim occurred within the State of New York.

PLAINTIFF

7. EF, the Plaintiff, is a corporation that manufactures, markets, and distributes products in Mexico.

8. Plaintiff's primary offices are at Enrique Wallon # 428 Primer Piso, Col. Rincon del Bosque, 11580 Mexico, D.F. Mexico.

DEFENDANTS

9. Defendant Iconix is a corporation that is in the business of licensing trademarks, such as the Mudd trademark.

10. Iconix's principal place of business is 1450 Broadway, 4th Floor, New York, New York 10018.

11. Defendant IP is a limited liability company wholly owned and controlled by Iconix.

12. IP's principal place of business is 1950 Broadway, 4th Floor, New York, New York 10018.

13. Iconix controls IP and uses IP to hold title in trademarks that IP owns.

FACTS

The Agreement

14. Plaintiff entered into an exclusive licensing agreement for the manufacture, marketing, and distribution of the “Mudd” line of fashion clothing in Mexico with Defendants. Defendants refused to perform, ordered Plaintiff not to perform, and entered into a second, conflicting agreement with another entity.

15. Mr. Joseph Gershon (“Gershon”) is a principal of Plaintiff.

16. In early 2006, Gershon entered into an oral agreement with Iconix to determine whether it would be profitable to exploit the Mudd trademark in Mexico, and, if so, to license the trademark in Mexico for Iconix. Iconix was represented by Mr. Andrew Tarshis (“Tarshis”) and Ms. Gail Tentler (“Tentler”).

17. Gershon did the following pursuant to that agreement over a period of several months:

- a. Traveled within and without Mexico to determine potential markets for products carrying the Mudd trademark;
- b. Met with potential manufacturers and distributors of Mudd products, and conducted negotiations with these potential manufacturers and distributors;
- c. Conducted further meetings with Tarshis and Tentler; and
- d. Traveled to Mexico with Tentler to meet with a company that manufactures denim clothing, known as “Future Exports.” Future Exports was one of the potential manufacturers that Gershon had identified to manufacture “Mudd” branded blue jeans in Mexico.

18. Gershon concluded that it would be profitable to sell goods in Mexico under the Mudd trademark, and the parties therefore negotiated an exclusive licensing agreement, under which Iconix licensed Plaintiff to manufacture, market, and distribute the Mudd line of fashion clothing in Mexico (the "Agreement").

19. Defendants were the primary drafters of the Agreement.

20. By early October of 2006, the parties agreed on the final terms and final form of the Agreement. A copy of the Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1.

21. The Agreement grants an exclusive license to Plaintiff to use the Mudd trademark in Mexico, and to manufacture, market, sell, and distribute products using the Mudd mark. See Ex. 1 at ¶ 1.

22. The term of the Agreement was approximately three years, nine months, and would have continued through December 31, 2009. See Ex. 1 at ¶ 2.1.

23. The Agreement was renewable, at the sole option of Plaintiff, for an additional three years, upon the fulfillment of minimum royalties and sales. See Ex. 1 at ¶ 2.2.

24. On October 3, 2006, Tarshis demanded that Gershon execute the Agreement on behalf of Plaintiff immediately and return it to Defendants. Gershon complied, signing and returning the executed Agreement promptly to Tarshis.

25. On October 9, 2006, Gershon received an e-mail note from Tarshis acknowledging receipt of the executed Agreement from Gershon.

26. On the same day, October 9, 2006, Iconix published a press release announcing that it had entered into an Agreement with the Plaintiff. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 2.

27. On October 9, 2006, Reuters and the Associated Press stated that Iconix said it signed a license with Plaintiff to sell Mudd branded clothing, shoes and other products in Mexico.

28. Plaintiff performed on the Agreement. For example, Gershon sought out and negotiated tentative agreements with third parties in Mexico for the manufacture, marketing, and distribution of the Mudd line.

29. Plaintiff at all times was ready, willing, and able to perform under the Agreement.

Repudiation of the Agreement

30. In October 2006, after the press releases had been issued, Tentler informed Gershon by telephone that Defendants did not want to proceed with the Agreement. Plaintiff protested and asked Tentler to meet with him. Plaintiff requested a meeting by e-mail.

31. In late October, one of Plaintiff's potential customers in Mexico informed Gershon that Future Exports – the potential manufacturer with whom Gershon had met regarding the manufacture of Mudd products – claimed that it had an exclusive license for the distribution of the Mudd line in Mexico.

32. In late October or early November of 2006, Gershon telephoned Tarshis and asked whether Iconix had a license agreement with Future Exports for Mudd products. Tarshis denied that Iconix had an agreement with Future Exports.

33. On November 3, 2006, Tarshis wrote Gershon an e-mail stating that “we have decided that it would not be in the interests of our company to sign a license agreement with you or Exportaciones del Futuro.” The e-mail stated that “we ask that you immediately discontinue any discussions that you may be having with potential customers/suppliers regarding the Mudd brand and cancel any meetings that may have been scheduled in connection therewith.” The e-mail further stated “Please be aware that you no longer have our permission or authorization to represent yourself or Exportaciones del Future [sic] as having a legitimate relationship with our company or the Mudd brand.”

34. In November of 2006, Gershon wrote to Tarshis and requested an explanation of Defendants' failure to perform. Iconix did not respond until January 16, 2007, when Tarshis sent an e-mail to Gershon stating that the November 3 e-mail had been intended to state that "you had no authority or right to represent yourself or Exportaciones del Futuro as having any legitimate association with the Mudd brand or our company," and that Defendants have retained legal counsel and "have instructed them to proceed with legal action if you do not immediately discontinue all use (and/or mention) of the Mudd brand in your dealings."

35. A third party that operates in Mexico has confirmed to Plaintiff that he has seen a copy of an agreement by Defendants for the manufacture of Mudd brand products in Mexico by Future Exports.

36. Defendants have repudiated the agreement, and by entering into a conflicting agreement, have made it impossible for Plaintiff to perform the Agreement.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Breach of Contract by Defendants

37. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 36 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

38. Defendants breached and repudiated the Agreement, and are liable to Plaintiff for the damages Plaintiff has suffered, in an amount to be demonstrated at trial, but at least $5.7 million.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Interference with Contract by Iconix

39. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 38 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

40. In October of 2006, Plaintiff and IP entered into the Agreement, which was an advantageous business relationship for Plaintiff.

41. To the extent that IP had a separate corporate existence from Iconix, Iconix caused IP to breach and repudiate the Agreement.

42. Iconix therefore interfered with a contract between IP and Plaintiff.

43. Iconix' interference with the contract between IP and Plaintiff was intentional and improper.

44. As a result, Iconix is liable for damages in an amount to be demonstrated at trial, but at least $5.7 million.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Interference with Prospective Business Advantage by Defendants

45. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 44 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

46. Plaintiff had a business relationship with Future Exports, and Defendants knew of this relationship.

47. Defendants intentionally and wrongfully interfered with the relationship between Plaintiff and Future Exports by repudiating the Agreement, and by entering into an exclusive licensing agreement directly with Future Exports.

48. As a result, Defendants are liable for the injury caused, in an amount to be demonstrated at trial.

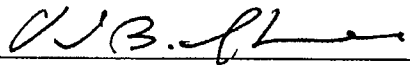

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

- A. Adjudging Defendants to be jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff in an amount to be proven at trial, but at least $5.7 million, with interest, and
- B. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

3. Development of Articles

3.1 Licensee shall submit to Licensor materials, designs, sketches, colors, fabric samples, tags, labels and packaging from which Licensor may select those, if any, that Licensor approves for use in connection with Articles. 3.2 All designs, sketches and other materials provided or approved by Licensor shall be used by Licensee solely in connection with the manufacture, distribution and sale of Articles, and the advertising, marketing and promotion of Articles in the Territory and pursuant to this Agreement. 8. Minimum Advertising Royalty Spend

8.1 During the first Annual Period, Licensee shall expend in connection with the advertising, marketing and promotion of Articles an amount equal to at least 2% of Minimum Net Sales for such Annual Period (a "Minimum Advertising Requirement"). 8.2 In the event that Licensee fails to expend a sum equal to at least the Minimum Advertising Requirement for any Annual Period, Licensee shall pay to Licensor, at the time it delivers to Licensor the final "Quarterly Statement" (as defined in ¶10.1), an amount equal to the shortfall or applicable portion thereof (the "Minimum Advertising Shortfall Payment").

8.3 All advertising to be credited toward the Minimum Advertising Requirement must be approved by Licensor in advance. 9. Payments; Currency Conversions; Withholding

Execution Copy

9.3 If applicable, Licensee shall compute and pay, on behalf of Licensor, all taxes that any governmental authority in the Territory may impose on Licensor with respect to the payments made by Licensee to Licensor hereunder. The amount of such taxes shall be deducted from such payments. Licensee shall furnish Licensor with an official receipt (together with an English language translation thereof) promptly after each such payment of taxes. If such taxes are not paid when due, all resulting penalties and interest shall be borne by Licensee.

9.4 Licensee may not withhold payment of any Royalty on the grounds of the actual or alleged non-performance or breach of any of Licensor's obligations under this Agreement.

10. Sales Reports and Plans

10.1 Licensee shall deliver to Licensor at the time each Sales Royalty payment is due, a statement ("Quarterly Statement") indicating, by month and separately for each Article, the number and invoice price of all Articles shipped during the applicable period, the amount of discounts and returns that may be deducted from gross sales and a computation of Net Wholesale Sales and the amount of Sales Royalty payable for said period in respect of Net Wholesale Sales.

10.2 Not later than 90 days prior to the end of any Annual Period, Licensee shall provide to Licensor a written plan setting forth with reasonable specificity and in good faith, the manner in which Licensee plans the sale, marketing, distribution, advertising and promotion of Articles for the following Annual Period, including but limited to, reasonable projections of Net Sales by quarter, by major customer account, sales goals and plans, planned cooperative and other advertising expenditures, and such other information as to Articles as may be reasonably requested by Licensor (each an "Annual Business Plan").

10.3 In addition to the Annual Business Plan, Licensee will provide Licensor with monthly forecasts of Net Wholesale Sales for each month during each Annual Period and will provide Licensor with such other information related to its business as Licensor may reasonable request from time to time. The foregoing information may be supplied by electronic mail to an email address to be provided by Licensor from time to time.

11. Books and Records; Audits

11.1 Licensee shall prepare and maintain complete and accurate books of account and records covering all transactions relating to this Agreement. Licensor's representatives may, from time to time during regular business hours on reasonable advance notice, during the term of this Agreement and for 2 years thereafter, audit such books of account and records and examine and copy all other documents and material in the possession or under the control of Licensee with respect to the subject matter and the terms of this Agreement.

11.2 If, as a result of any audit of Licensee's books and records, it is shown that any of Licensee's Sales Royalty payments was less than the amount that should have been paid, all payments required to be made to eliminate the discrepancy, plus interest in the amount provided for in ¶16.1(a)(i), shall be made promptly upon Licensor's demand, and, if the discrepancy is 5% or more of the amount actually paid with respect to sales occurring during the period in question, Licensee promptly shall reimburse Licensor for the reasonable and actual cost and expenses of such audit.

12. The Licensed Mark

12.1 Licensee shall not use the Licensed Mark, in whole or in part, as a corporate name, trade name or domain name and shall not use the Licensed Mark in combination with any prefix, suffix, or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols unless approved by Licensor in writing.

12.2 Licensee acknowledges that, as between Licensee and Licensor, Licensor is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Mark in the Territory in any form or embodiment thereof, including as part of a domain name, and is also the owner of the goodwill attached or that shall become attached to the Licensed Mark in connection with the business and goods in relation to which the same has been, is or shall be used. Sales by Licensee shall be deemed to have been made by Licensor for purposes of trademark registration and all uses of the Licensed Mark by Licensee (including any use of the Licensed Mark in combination with any other marks, words or symbols approved by Licensor) shall inure to the benefit of Licensor. Licensee shall not do or suffer to be done any act or thing that may in any way adversely affect any rights of Licensor in and to the Licensed Mark or any registrations thereof or that, directly or indirectly, may reduce the value of the Licensed Mark or detract from its reputation.

12.3 Licensee shall execute any documents reasonably required by Licensor to confirm Licensor's ownership of all rights in and to the Licensed Mark in the Territory and the respective rights of Licensor and Licensee pursuant to this Agreement. Licensee shall cooperate with Licensor in connection with the filing and prosecution by Licensor of applications in Licensor's name to register the Licensed Mark for Products in the Territory and the maintenance and renewal of such registrations as may issue. With respect to any requirements in the Territory that mandate applications to register Licensee as a Permitted User or Registered User of the Licensed Mark or which require the recordation of this License Agreement, Licensee agrees to execute and deliver to Licensor and to such parties as Licensor shall indicate, such applications, agreements, or other documents as may be necessary and as are furnished by Licensor for such purposes.

12.4 Licensee shall use the Licensed Mark in the Territory strictly in compliance with all applicable legal requirements. Also, Licensee shall cause to appear on all Articles and on all materials on or in connection with which the Licensed Mark is used, such legends, markings and notices as may be reasonably necessary in order to give appropriate notice of any trademark, trade name or other rights therein or pertaining thereto.

12.5 Licensee shall not challenge Licensor's ownership of or the validity of the Licensed Mark or any application for registration thereof, or any trademark registration thereof, or any rights of Licensor therein. Also, Licensee shall not seek to register, as a trademark, domain name or otherwise, the Licensed Mark or any variation or simulation thereof in the Territory or elsewhere throughout the world for Products or any other products or services. Any such challenge or any attempt to register shall be a material and incurable default hereunder. Also, the provisions of and the obligations of Licensee under this ¶12.5 shall survive the expiration or any termination of this Agreement ("Termination").

Execution Copy

14. Confidentiality

14.1 Licensee acknowledges that all information relating to the business and operations of Licensor and its affiliates that it learns or has learned during or prior to the term of this Agreement, all creative concepts that Licensor provides to it and all sketches and designs received by it from, or approved for use hereunder by, Licensor are the valuable property of Licensor. Licensee acknowledges the need to preserve the confidentiality and secrecy of the foregoing and agrees that, both during and after the term of this Agreement, it shall not use or disclose same, except for such use that is permitted under this Agreement. 15. Indemnity; Insurance

15.1 Licensee hereby saves and holds Licensor and its respective affiliates harmless of and from and indemnifies each of them against any and all losses, liability, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) that they or any of them may incur or be obligated to pay, or for which they or any of them may become liable or be compelled to pay in any action, claim or proceeding against them or any of them, for or by reason of any acts, whether of omission or commission, that may be committed or suffered by Licensee or any of its servants, agents or employees in connection with Licensee's performance of this Agreement. The provisions of this ¶15.1 and Licensee's obligations hereunder shall survive Termination.

15.2 (a) Licensee shall procure and maintain at all times during which Articles are being sold a public liability insurance policy including products liability coverage with respect to Articles with a limit of liability of not less than the equivalent of US$3,000,000. Such insurance may be obtained by Licensee in conjunction with a policy of products liability insurance that covers products other than Articles.

(b) Each insurance policy required to be maintained by Licensee hereunder ("Policy") shall be written for the benefit of Licensee and Licensor and the other indemnitees described in ¶15.1 and shall be designated expressly as primary insurance. Licensee shall deliver to Licensor a certificate of insurance with respect to each Policy and shall furnish to Licensor evidence of the maintenance of each Policy upon request. Each Policy shall provide that it may not be canceled or altered without at least 30 days prior written notice to Licensor.

(c) Nothing contained in this ¶15.2 shall be deemed to limit in any way the indemnification provisions of ¶15.1.

15.3 Licensor hereby saves and holds Licensee and its respective affiliates harmless of and from and indemnifies each of them against any and all losses, liability, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) that they or any of them may incur or be obligated to pay, or for which they or any them may become liable or be compelled to pay in any action, claim or proceeding against them or any of them, by reason of the fact that Licensee's use of the Licensed Mark strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement infringes upon the rights of a third party. The provisions of this ¶15.3 and Licensor's obligations hereunder shall survive Termination.

15.4 Any person seeking indemnification under ¶15.1 or 15.3 (the "Indemnitee") shall use reasonable efforts to give Licensee or Licensor, as the case may be (for purposes of this ¶15.4, the "Indemnitor"), notice of any action, claim or proceeding for which indemnification is being sought promptly after the Indemnitee becomes aware of such action, claim or proceeding; provided, however, that the failure of the Indemnitee to provide the Indemnitor prompt notice of any such action, claim or proceeding shall not adversely affect the Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement unless, and then only to the extent, that the Indemnitor is materially prejudiced by such failure. Upon receiving notice of any action, claim or proceeding for which an Indemnitee is seeking indemnification, the Indemnitor, in its sole but reasonable discretion, shall take such action as it deems advisable to defend such action, claim or proceeding on behalf of the Indemnitee. In the event appropriate action is not taken by the Indemnitor within 20 days after its receipt of notice from the Indemnitee, the Indemnitee shall have the right to defend such action, claim or proceeding, in which case the Indemnitor also shall reimburse the Indemnitee for its costs in defending such action, claim or proceeding, but no settlement thereof may be made without the approval of the Indemnitor, which approval shall not be withheld or delayed unreasonably. Even if such appropriate action is taken by the Indemnitor, the Indemnitee may, at its own expense, be represented by its own counsel in such action, claim or proceeding. In any case, the Indemnitee and the Indemnitor shall keep each other fully advised of all developments and shall cooperate fully with each other in all respects in connection with any such defense as is made. The provisions of, and the Indemnitees' and the Indemnitors' respective rights and obligations under this ¶15.4 shall survive Termination.

16. Defaults; Termination; Reversions

16.1 (a) If Licensee fails to make any payment due hereunder, (i) Licensee shall pay interest on the unpaid balance thereof from and including the date such payment becomes due until the date the entire amount is paid in full at a rate equal to the prime rate prevailing in New York, New York, U.S.A. at Citibank, N.A. as of the close of business on the date the payment first becomes due plus 3 percentage points (or the maximum rate of interest that legally can be paid by Licensee, if lower), and (ii) if such default shall continue uncured for a period of ten (10) business days after notice thereof from Licensor, Licensor may terminate this Agreement forthwith by notice to Licensee. Also, Licensee shall be responsible for and shall reimburse Licensor for any and all costs reasonably incurred by Licensor in seeking to collect any sums due to Licensor hereunder, including reasonable attorneys' and collection agency fees and expenses.

16.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of ¶16.1(b), Licensor shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Licensee, upon the occurrence of any one or more of the following events:

The events and proceedings set forth above are deemed to include all comparable events and proceedings under the laws of Mexico. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to preclude or impair any rights which Licensor may have as a creditor in any bankruptcy or other proceeding, provided such proceeding or filing is not vacated within 30 days from such filing. Also, no assignee for the benefit of creditors, custodian, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, sheriff or any other officer of the court or official (or the equivalent thereof in the Territory) charged with taking over custody of Licensee's assets or business may continue this Agreement or exploit or in any way use the Licensed Mark if this Agreement terminates pursuant to this ¶16.3.

16.4 Licensor may terminate this Agreement, by notice to Licensee if Net Wholesale Sales during any Annual Period are less than 50% of "Minimum Net Wholesale Sales" for such Annual Period (as provided in Schedule C).

16.5 If, by the beginning of the third Annual Period, Licensee has not commenced marketing Articles in reasonable commercial quantities in any particular Category, or if Licensee had commenced the marketing of Articles in a Category in reasonable commercial quantities, but, by the beginning of the third Annual Period or at any time thereafter, it ceases doing so, then, in either such case, at Licensor's option and by notice to Licensee, such Category of Articles automatically shall be deleted from the definition of the Products hereunder and all rights granted to Licensee hereunder with respect to such Products automatically shall revert to Licensor.

17.2 In addition, upon Termination, Licensee immediately shall deliver to Licensor a complete and accurate schedule of Licensee's inventory of Articles and of related work in process then on hand ("Inventory"). With the exception of merchandise which did not meet approvals,, Licensee shall be permitted, for a period of 90 days following Termination, to sell-off the Inventory (the "Sell-Off Period"), provided that all such sales are made subject to all of the provisions of this Agreement. All Sales Royalty due for sales of Inventory during the Sell-Off Period shall be accounted for and paid to Licensor monthly.

17.3 Except for the sale of Inventory, on Termination, all of the rights of Licensee under this Agreement shall terminate forthwith and shall revert immediately to Licensor and Licensee immediately shall cease the manufacture, distribution and sale of Articles, discontinue all use of the Licensed Mark and transfer to Licensor, free of charge, all registrations, filings and rights with regard to the Licensed Mark that it may have possessed at any time. In addition, Licensee thereupon shall deliver to Licensor, free of charge, all samples of Articles and all labels and other material in its possession with the Licensed Mark thereon.

In seeking injunctive relief, Licensor need not secure a bond or other security or prove any actual damages. Also, Licensor may commence an arbitration to recover damages prior to or in lieu of Termination.

18. Representations and Warranties

18.1 Licensor represents and warrants that it has full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform all of its obligations hereunder and that it has granted no other existing license to use the Licensed Mark on Products in the Territory. Except for the foregoing, Licensee acknowledges that Licensor has not made, nor is Licensor herewith or hereby making, any representation or warranty of any kind with respect to Licensor, the Licensed Mark, Articles or the prospects of the business to be conducted by Licensee hereunder.

20.1 Subject to ¶20.2 below, Licensee may, upon obtaining the written consent of Licensor in each instance, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, sublicense to others the whole or any part of the rights granted to Licensee to use the License Mark under this Agreement; provided, however, that in each and every instance (i) Licensee shall promptly notify Licensor of the name, address and identity of the sublicensee as Licensor may reasonably request, (ii) no such sublicense shall be granted to further sublicense to others, and (iii) Licensee shall be fully responsible for any and all performance under any such sublicense.

20.2 A sublicense by Licensee pursuant to ¶20.1 shall not operate so as to relieve or discharge Licensee from any of its obligations under this Agreement. To the extent of a sublicense by Licensee hereunder, the term "Licensee", as used in this Agreement, shall be deemed to also refer to the sublicensee to whom Licensee has so sublicensed, as the context may require, except that no such sublicensee shall, itself, be permitted to sublicense its rights hereunder, except upon the express written consent of License in each instance.

20.3 The performance of Licensee hereunder is of a personal nature and, therefore, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights granted to Licensee hereunder may be assigned, sublicensed (except as otherwise provided for above) or transferred by Licensee and any such attempted assignment, sublicense or transfer, whether voluntary or by operation of law, shall be void and of no force or effect and shall constitute an incurable default hereunder. The direct or indirect transfer or issuance of any shares of Licensee shall be deemed a violative assignment hereof and also shall constitute an incurable default hereunder if such transfer or issuance shall limit or reduce the rights or ability of the current owners of Licensee to control the business and affairs of Licensee.

20.4 This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the parties, Licensor's successors and assigns and Licensee's permitted successors and assigns.

21. Arbitration; Court Actions

21.1 Except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, all disputes, controversies and claims arising out of or relating hereto or concerning the respective rights or obligations hereunder of the parties hereto (except disputes, controversies and claims relating to or affecting in any way the ownership of or the validity of the Licensed Mark or any registration thereof, or any application for registration thereof ("Licensed Mark Disputes")) shall be settled and determined by arbitration in New York, New York, U.S.A., before a panel of three arbitrators in accordance with and pursuant to the then existing International Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitrators, in their discretion, may award specific performance or injunctive relief and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses to any party in any such arbitration and the courts also may do so with regard to injunctive relief sought by Licensor pursuant to ¶17.4 and with regard to Licensed Mark Disputes (collectively, "Court Actions"). However, in any arbitration proceeding, the arbitrators may not change, modify or alter any express condition, term or provision hereof in any respect, and to that extent the scope of their authority is expressly limited. The arbitration award shall be final and binding upon the parties and judgment thereon may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The service of any notice, process, motion or other document in connection with an arbitration under this Agreement or for the enforcement of any arbitration award hereunder may be effectuated in the manner in which notices are to be given to a party pursuant to §19.

21.2 Any Court Action shall be brought in New York, New York, U.S.A., in any court having jurisdiction thereof, except that Licensor also may bring an injunctive proceeding in any jurisdiction where appropriate by reason of the subject matter of the Court Action. Each of Licensor and Licensee hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of any of said courts located in New York, New York, U.S.A. and any such other jurisdiction in any Court Action and hereby waives any claim or defense of inconvenient forum or lack of personal jurisdiction under any applicable law, decision or treaty or otherwise.

22. Miscellaneous

22.1 Licensee shall not give away Articles or sell Articles in connection with any tie-in or marketing or promotional campaign relating to products other than Articles without the prior consent of Licensor.

22.2 Licensee shall reimburse Licensor for the reasonable and pre-approved travel expenses (i.e., airfare, lodgings, meals and local transportation) incurred by Licensor's personnel (not to exceed 3) in travel undertaken by Licensor under this Agreement – which shall include travel to the Territory 2 times per each Annual Period.

22.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Licensor and its affiliates may at any time during the Term negotiate and enter into agreements with third parties pursuant to which any of them may grant a license to use the Licensed Mark in connection with the manufacture, distribution and sale of Products in the Territory, provided that the first sales or presentations for sales shall be a collection after the final collection permitted to be sold by Licensee hereunder; and nothing herein shall be construed to prevent Licensor, its

22.5 This Agreement contains the entire understanding and agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, supersedes all prior oral or written understandings and agreements relating thereto and may not be modified, discharged or terminated, nor may any of the provisions hereof be waived, orally.

22.6 Nothing herein shall be construed to constitute the parties hereto as partners or as joint venturers, or either as agent of the other, and Licensee may not obligate or bind Licensor in any manner whatsoever. Licensee shall clearly identify itself at each at its business premises and on all materials, including business documents, required by Licensor as an independent licensee of Licensor.

22.7 No waiver by either party, whether express or implied, of any provision hereof, or of any breach or default thereof, shall constitute a continuing waiver of such provision or of any other provision of this Agreement. Acceptance of payments by Licensor shall not be deemed a waiver by Licensor of any violation of or default under any of the provisions of this Agreement by Licensee. Also, if for any reason any acts or omissions by Licensee hereunder not in conformance with any of the requirements hereof are not objected to by Licensor from time to time, such a failure to object shall not be deemed a waiver by Licensor of any such requirement and Licensor may insist upon due performance thereof by Licensee at any time.

22.8 If any provision or any portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement and the remaining portion of any provision held void or unenforceable in part shall continue in full force and effect.

22.9 This Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing this Agreement to be drafted. Also, as used in this Agreement, the term "including" means "including, but not limited to" unless otherwise specifically provided.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.
